He Will Watch Over Your Life

Psalm 121

D                 G
--- The LORD will keep you
A            D
--- from all harm
D                    G
--- the LORD watches over you
    A                     D
the LORD is your shade at your right hand

D             G         A
He will watch over your life
              D         Bm
He will watch over your life
              G         A
He will watch over your life
                D         D7
both now and forever more
D             G         A
He will watch over your life
              D         Bm
He will watch over your life
              G         A
He will watch over your life
                G          D
both now and forever more

G           A   D             Bm
--- He will not let your foot slip
G          A            D             D7
--- He Who watches over you will not slumber
  G           A            D     Bm
indeed He Who watches over   Israel
             G       A     D
will neither slumber   nor sleep
